Reaction and Healing: the 10th Anniversary of 9/11

In preparing to commemorate the events of September 11, a call-to-artists from Marilyn J. Fox, director of Penn State Berks Freyberger Gallery, brought over eighty submissions, with forty artists selected, and over eighty works of art. The overwhelming response from artists prompted Fox to invite other venues to partner with the Berks campus, thus creating this historic multi-venue exhibition. Each location will feature works based around themes that emerged from the body of submissions.
